

PRESS RELEASE

Fifth award of the Casa di Goethe scholarship of the Karin and Uwe Hollweg Foundation in Rome

Bonn/Rome, 8th March 2021. For the fifth time, the jury has chosen scholarship holders for the award of the Casa di Goethe scholarship of the Karin and Uwe Hollweg Foundation for a working stay in Rome. Since 2013, the scholarship has given writers, scientists and publicists who devote their work to German-Italian cultural exchange the opportunity to live and work for two to three months in the rooms of the Casa di Goethe in the historical centre. Since the extension of the Casa di Goethe in the year 2012, a guest room has been available to scholarship holders there.

The German-Italian jury (Angelo Bolaffi, Rome; Susanne Popp, Karlsruhe; Dieter Richter, Bremen) has chosen seven scholarship holders from numerous applications, who will be guests at the Casa di Goethe from the autumn of 2021:

- Dr. Gesine Bey, literary scholar, is researching on “Martha Musil's years in Rome”;
- Thomas Brussig, author, is researching for his Eckermann novel “Over all the Treetops”;
- Alexander Cammann, editor, is writing a non-fiction book about artists in baroque Rome;
- Verena von Koskull, translator, is doing research in Rome on the Italian writer Alba de Céspedes;
- Dr. Kirsten Krumeich, art historian, is embarking on a search for the whereabouts of a bust by Giovanni Pierluigi Palestrina;
- Karoline Mueller-Stahl, Germanist, is writing about the Via Merulana;
- Dr. Adelheid Rasche, art historian, is creating a fashion ABC on Goethe's wardrobe;

We thank the Karin and Uwe Hollweg Foundation for the many years of support of the scholarship programme.
