“DO YOU KNOW THE HOUSE ... IN THE LAND WHERE THE LEMON TREES FLOWER?”

From 1786 to 1788, the German poet Johann Wolfgang Goethe (1749-1832) lived with his friend, the painter Johann Heinrich Wilhelm Tischbein, at Via del Corso 18.

Today, the Casa di Goethe preserves drawings, books and letters regarding Goethe's journey to Italy, which is at the centre of the permanent exhibition.

The Casa di Goethe also organizes temporary exhibitions and cultural events dedicated to travelling in Italy then and now as well as cultural exchange between Italy and Germany.

The historical library, the event room and the fellow's apartment are located on the second floor.
